

Special & Rare Collections Consultation Form

Many University of Tasmania Special & Rare Collections materials have been donated or deposited by individuals and organizations outside the University. Depositors have specified conditions and requirements regarding the access and use of their material as stated on this form.

By signing this form you are acknowledging that you agree to these conditions.

1. Official identification is required and all research will be carried out under the direct control and supervision of the Special & Rare Collections staff.
2. Records made available to researchers will not be marked or disordered in any way and will be returned in their original order and condition.
3. No copies (photocopies or photographs) of records will be made without the specific permission of the staff of Special & Rare Collections and any copying will be subject to the access conditions for that particular collection, the physical condition of the records and copyright legislation.
4. Such copies are made for the purposes of personal research only and should not be further reproduced.
5. No further copies or publication in any form will be undertaken without the written permission of the Special & Rare Collections Librarian. Where the University is not the copyright owner of the material researchers should obtain the necessary permission of the copyright holder before undertaking any form of publication.
