Place Value Multiplication and Division Spinners

This activity provides practice with multiplying and dividing decimals by different powers of ten.

Use a pencil and a paperclip to create spinners. Spin each of the two spinners and calculate the answer. Check with a calculator if necessary. Explain your answer to a partner.