Information

ENROLMENT
This is not an enrolment form for the HOST INSTITUTION. You must contact the HOST INSTITUTION to organise your cross-institutional enrolment.

HOME INSTITUTION
The institution at which the award is to be conferred is referred to as the "home institution". For advice on submitting your application for enrolment as a Cross-Institutional student, consult your Faculty Office at the home institution.

HOST INSTITUTION
The institution at which cross enrolment in units is sought.

SUPPORTING DOCUMENTATION
a) unit description. Descriptions should comprise of:- (1) a description of the unit (2) weighting/credit point value (3) assessment ie. exam (70%), practical work (30%) and (4) teaching pattern ie Semester 1 with 3 hour lectures and 1 hour tutorial per week, (5) contact hours if studying on campus. Descriptions must come from the relevant year handbook, ie if you're wanting to take cross-inst study in 2011, the descriptions must come from HOST institution’s 2011 handbook.

b) a copy of the HOST institutions rules for the same degree eg. LLB. The rules (or course structure) will provide information about the HOST institution's credit point/weight system. eg. to complete a LLB degree at University of Tasmania, students will enrol in units totalling 100% weight in each year of the four year course (total of 400%).

CONDITIONS OF ADMISSION
Cross-institutional students are subject to the same statues, regulations and rules as apply to students enrolled in an award course at the other institution at which they are allowed to enrol. These statutes, regulations and rules relate to attendance at classes, performance or work, discipline, conduct and progress and are to be found in the publications of the other institution. If a cross-institutional student is subsequently admitted to a course leading to an award at the other institution at which they have been allowed cross-institutional enrolment, units passed while enrolled on a cross-institutional basis may only be counted towards an award of the other institution if specific approval is granted by the other institution.

HECS-HELP
Cross-institutional students are required to pay HECS-HELP for those units taken at the other institution. This will be calculated by the other institution independently from the HECS-HELP calculated at the student's home institution.
FACULTY OF LAW
GUIDELINES FOR CROSS INSTITUTIONAL STUDY
AT A HOST INSTITUTION

Cross-Institutional enrolments allow UTAS students to undertake study in single units at another institution and have those studies credited to their degree at the University of Tasmania.

CLOSING DATE for submission of a cross-institutional application is:
For semester 1: 20 January
For semester 2: 20 May
Spring/Summer school units: 1 October.

Applications received after the above dates, and incomplete applications will not be considered.
No exceptions. Please allow 15 working days for processing of application – longer if the Host institution requires their form to be signed by the Fees Office.

STEPS

1. YOU must contact the HOST institution offering the units in the discipline you require. Ask them about their process for applying for INCOMING CROSS-INSTITUTIONAL ENROLMENT.

2. YOU must fill out the UTas Faculty of Law Cross-Institutional Application form and attach to it a copy of the unit description for each cross-institutional unit you wish to study (usually available from the HOST institutions handbook online).

3. SUBMIT the completed cross-institutional application and unit descriptions to the Faculty Executive Officer for who will arrange for unit outlines to be assessed by the Sub Dean.

4. IF the Sub Dean approves the units, the Faculty Executive Officer will be notify you in writing and your academic record will be annotated accordingly. Approval for cross institutional study is not routinely granted and the Faculty has no obligation to allow a student to undertake cross-institutional study. Please refer to the Procedures Relating to Cross-Institutional Study in the Faculty of Law on the Faculty web page.

5. YOU must complete any relevant HOST institutions forms (which may require a signature from the relevant Faculty Office and the Fees office at UTas). This should then be forwarded to the chosen institution for enrolment purposes. Note you will enrol with the HOST institution, pay HECS-HELP with the HOST institution

Please note the following:
➢ The University of Tasmania does not request result statements from the HOST institution on your behalf. It is your responsibility to provide your results to the Law Faculty Office for inclusion on your academic record. Send either your original result statement or an official academic transcript from the HOST institution. Results downloaded from the institution’s website or other electronic sources, including but not limited to the Internet, will not be accepted.
➢ If you are a expecting to graduate this year, results must be received by no later than 8 July (for end of semester 1 graduation) or 22 November (for end of year graduation). Failure to comply with this deadline will mean that your graduation will be deferred by one semester. No exceptions will be made.
➢ DUE TO THE RELEASE DATES OF RESULTS FROM OTHER UNIVERSITIES STUDENTS UNDERTAKING CROSS-INSTITUTIONAL STUDY CANNOT GRADUATE AT THE SAME SEMESTER UTAS GRADUATION CEREMONY.
➢ The University of Tasmania does not process enrolments with the HOST institution on your behalf. It is your responsibility to forward all appropriate application forms to the HOST institution, and confirm enrolment.
➢ Unless in exceptional circumstances and at the discretion of the Sub Dean, students will not be permitted to undertake equivalent UTas units that are offered on campus or by distance education.
➢ Restrictions apply in the number of units that can be taken by cross-institutional study and this is inclusive of any credit granted for previous study.
