

University of Tasmania Thesis Access Form

What you need to do

Masters by Research, PhD and Professional Doctorate students must lodge this form with two hard bound copies of their thesis together with one electronic copy to the University of Tasmania (UTAS). By default the electronic copy will be made publicly accessible online and UTAS must make sure you have the rights necessary to make it available in this way. If you have included copyright material which you do not have the right to use (eg: images, tables, graphs, data collections, substantial amounts of text etc.), you must either obtain permission to include that material or omit it from the electronic version of your thesis. If you omit copyright material can you please include notation where material has been removed. This will help readers understand your thesis.

Access to your thesis

UTAS will make your thesis publicly accessible online and in print UNLESS you as the author request that UTAS restrict access.

If you wish access to your thesis to be restricted, please complete the following:

I request UTAS to restrict full text access to my thesis for a period of .....months / years (please delete one)

Note: Access cannot be restricted for more than 2 years without prior approval from the Dean of Graduate Research. Please provide reasons for the consideration of the Dean when requesting more than 2 years.
