Professor Anne Wallace
Anne Wallace graduated UTAS in 1981. She became the Head of the School of Law & Justice at Edith Cowan University in August 2012.

Professor Wendy Lacey
Wendy Lacey graduated UTAS in 1999. She has held the position of Dean at the University of South Australia since April 2014, although she has been Acting Dean on many occasions prior to this.

Her Excellency Professor the Honourable Kate Warner, Governor of Tasmania
Kate Warner graduated from the Law Faculty in 1970, and served as Dean of Law at UTAS from 1992 until 1994, as Head of School from 1994-1997. She was the first woman to hold either position.

Professor Enid Campbell
Enid Campbell graduated UTAS with honours in law in 1955. Campbell became the first female law dean in Australia in 1971, when she stepped into the role of Dean of Law at Monash University.

Professor Margaret Otlowski
Margaret Otlowski graduated from UTAS in 1985, and was appointed to the position of Dean of the Faculty of Law in 2011.

Professor Paula Baron
Paula Baron graduated from UTAS in 1991 and currently holds the position of Associate Pro Vice Chancellor (Coursework) in the College of Arts, Social Science and Commerce at La Trobe University.

Professor Maree Sainsbury
Maree Sainsbury graduated from the Law Faculty at UTAS in 1992, and has served as Dean of Law at the University of Canberra.

Professor Sandra Berns
Sandra Berns graduated from the Law Faculty in 1983 and served as Dean of Law at Griffith Law School from 1996 to 1999. She was the first woman to hold the position of Dean in any Queensland law school.