School of Medicine
Short Course Program
Recognising & Responding to Medical Emergencies in Dental Settings

This simulated training workshop has been designed for dental clinicians wishing to further develop their skills in preventing, recognising and responding promptly to medical emergencies that occur in dental settings.

Workshop content
- Intermediate Life Support for adults and paediatric cases
- Recognising and Responding to medical emergencies
- Clinical skills training
- Clinical documentation
- Communication and clinical handover among team members, paramedics and relevant health professionals

Facilitators
- Jasmine Raju, RN, MHPE, GCCS, MACN
- Dr. Ioan Jones, Senior Dentist-Clinical Education OHST

Register online at
Registrations close Friday, 30th March 2018 (April Workshop) and Friday, 17th August 2018 (September Workshop).

Numbers are limited

Contact Us
General Enquiries
Sue Quarmby
Manager, Continuing Professional Development Unit
Ph: 0403 938 558
Email: cpd.medicine@utas.edu.au