

ORDINANCE NO. 33

Academic Dress

The Council of the University of Tasmania in pursuance of the powers conferred upon it by the University of Tasmania Act 1992 hereby makes the following Ordinance.

1. The academic dress shall be:
 - (a) For undergraduates and holders of associate diplomas:
 - (i) a plain black stuff gown similar to that worn by scholars in the University of Oxford;
 - (ii) a black cloth trencher cap with a black tassel.
 - (b) For holders of associate degrees or holders of diplomas not being graduates:
 - (i) a gown of black cloth, of the same shape as that worn by Bachelors of Arts in the University of Oxford;
 - (ii) a black cloth trencher cap with a black tassel;
 - (iii) a stole of silk 10 centimetres wide, tapering to 4.5 centimetres across the shoulders, and of the length of the gown on each side. The colour of the stole shall be as determined for the relevant faculty in Schedule 1.
 - (c) For holders of advanced diplomas of the Australian Maritime College not being graduates:
 - (i) a gown of black cloth, of the same shape as that worn by Bachelors of Arts in the University of Oxford;
 - (ii) a black cloth trencher cap with a black tassel;
 - (iii) an Oxford style hood of black cloth fully lined with coloured silk and bound on the cowl and tippet with Pearl Grey braid to a depth of 2 centimetres either side. The silk is to be of the relevant colour specified in Schedule 1.

- (d) For bachelors other than bachelors of the Australian Maritime College:
 - (i) a gown of black cloth, of the same shape as that worn by Bachelors of Arts in the University of Oxford;
 - (ii) a black cloth trencher cap with a black tassel;
 - (iii) an Oxford style hood of black cloth lined to a depth of 5 centimetres with coloured silk in the tippet and cowl. The silk is to be the relevant colour specified in Schedule 1 or Schedule 2.
- (e) For bachelors of the Australian Maritime College:
 - (i) a gown of black cloth, of the same shape as that worn by Bachelors of Arts in the University of Oxford;
 - (ii) a black cloth trencher cap with a black tassel;
 - (iii) an Oxford style hood of black cloth, fully lined with coloured silk and bound on the cowl and tippet with Wine braid to a depth of 2 centimetres either side. The silk is to be of the relevant colour specified in Schedule 1.
- (f) For holders of diplomas being graduates:

The academic dress pertaining to the degree held by the diplomate before admission to the course for the diploma.
- (g) For masters other than Master of Surgery and masters of the Australian Maritime College:
 - (i) a gown of black cloth, of the same shape as that worn by Masters of Arts in the University of Oxford;
 - (ii) a black cloth trencher cap with a black tassel;
 - (iii) an Oxford style hood of black cloth lined entirely with silk. The colour of the silk lining shall be as determined for that degree in Schedule 1.
- (h) For masters of the Australian Maritime College:

- (i) For professional doctorates:
 - (i) a gown of black cloth of the style worn by Doctors of Philosophy in the University of Oxford, faced on the opening of the sleeves to a width of 6.5 centimetres, and on the full length of the lapels to a width of 10 centimetres, with coloured silk;
 - (ii) a black velvet bonnet trimmed with a coloured cord and tassel;
 - (iii) an Oxford style hood of coloured cloth lined with coloured silk.
 - (iv) The colour of the silk, cord and tassel and hood is the relevant colour specified in Schedule 1.
- (i) For doctors of philosophy:
 - (i) a gown of black cloth of the style worn by Doctors of Philosophy in the University of Oxford, faced on the opening of the sleeves to a width of 6.5 centimetres, and on the full length of the lapels to a width of 10 centimetres, with Scarlet silk;
 - (ii) a black velvet bonnet trimmed with scarlet cord and tassel;
 - (iii) an Oxford style hood of scarlet cloth lined with scarlet silk.
- (j) For doctors (other than doctors of philosophy and professional doctorates); and for masters of surgery:
 - (i) a festal gown of scarlet cloth of the style worn by doctors in the University of Cambridge, faced on the full length of the lapels to a width of 10 centimetres with coloured silk, with open pointed sleeves fully lined with coloured silk and turned back above the elbow;
 - (ii) a black velvet bonnet trimmed with gold cord and tassel;
 - (iii) a Cambridge style hood of black cloth lined entirely with coloured silk.
 - (iv) The colour of the silk is as specified in Schedule 1 for the faculty in which the degree was obtained.

- (k) For members of the University Council:
 - (i) a gown of black cloth, of the same shape as that worn by Masters of Arts in the University of Oxford ornamented with gold braid 2.5 centimetres long running from front to back on each shoulder;
 - (ii) a black cloth trencher cap with a black tassel.
- (l) For members of the Australian Maritime College Board:
 - (i) a gown of black cloth, of the same shape as that worn by Masters of Arts in the University of Oxford but with a square collar of gold silk and faced on the full length of the lapels to a width of 10 centimetres with gold silk;
 - (iii) a black cloth trencher cap with a black tassel, the cap edged with gold braid around the base to a width of 2 centimetres.
- (m) For the Chancellor and Deputy Chancellor:
 - (i) a black gown of patterned silk damask cloth faced on the full length of the lapels and around the yoke to a width of 5 centimetres with metallic gold braid, and with stripes of metallic gold braid each 5 centimetres wide on the upper and lower parts of each sleeve;
