Tasmania’s first animal law conference brings together experts from a range of disciplines to discuss topical issues, key challenges & future directions for animal law in Australia.

Topics include: live export, wildlife law, species justice, animals and consumer law, comparative animal law and Tasmanian animal law.

Keynote Address

Lessons for Australia from US Animal Law

International guest speaker, Professor Marsha Baum, University of New Mexico (USA)

Panel Discussion

Tasmania’s Animal Welfare/Protection Regulatory Framework

Legal Workshops

Teaching Animal Law in Australia

Directed by national legal education expert, Professor Nick James, Bond University

Current Challenges and Future Directions for Animal Law in Australia

Directed by PhD Candidate and Lecturer, Steven White, Griffith University

National Experts

Professor Rob White

UTAS, Sociology

Species Justice: A Sociological Perspective on a Legal Debate

Dr Malcolm Caulfield, Founder and Principal Lawyer, Animal Welfare Community Legal Centre (Tas)

• Former Legal Counsel for Animals Australia, Pharmacologist, Policy Advisor for VALE and Member of Tasmania's Animal Welfare Advisory Committee.
• Author of the first Australian animal law text.

Professor Gary Meyers

UTAS, Law

Indigenous Hunting/Fishing Rights & the Protection of Endangered Species

Ruth Hatten

Legal Counsel Voiceless

Assessment of the Legislative Framework Addressing Factory Farmed Animals & Kangaroos

Associate Professor Alex Bruce, ANU Law

Animals as Beneficiaries of Competition and Consumer Law & Policy

Professor Clive Phillips, University of Queensland

• Voiceless Eureka Prize for Scientific Research that Contributes to Animal Protection (Australian Museum Eureka Prizes) 2012.
• Inaugural holder of the University of Queensland Chair in Animal Welfare.

Lessons for Australia from US Animal Law

Public Q and A – Live Export, Law and Science

Senior Chair: Dr Malcolm Caulfield, Founder and Principal Lawyer, Animal Welfare Community Legal Centre (Tas)

• Former Legal Counsel for Animals Australia, Pharmacologist, Policy Advisor for VALE and Member of Tasmania’s Animal Welfare Advisory Committee.
• Author of the first Australian animal law text.

Dr Malcolm Caulfield, Founder and Principal Lawyer, Animal Welfare Community Legal Centre (Tas)

• Former Legal Counsel for Animals Australia, Pharmacologist, Policy Advisor for VALE and Member of Tasmania’s Animal Welfare Advisory Committee.
• Author of the first Australian animal law text.

University of Tasmania, Hobart
Saturday 19th – Sunday 20th January 2013 (9am - 5pm)
Email: Animal.LawConference@utas.edu.au
Web: www.utas.edu.au/law/utas-animal-law-conference/