Use the simple guidelines on this sheet to plan your degree.

Bachelor of Arts Structure (completion requirements)

- You need to pass a total of 300% of units (HECS weighting) made up of 100% at first year, 100% at second year and 100% at third year.
- And within the 300% you must complete majors (or specialisations) in two different disciplines, eg History and Philosophy.
- A major is made up of units in one discipline (eg History) studied over three years, totalling a minimum of 100% min eg 25% at first year and 75% at second and third year. The maximum for a major is 150%.
- At least 25% of units in each major must be Level 300 units (third year).
- You need to pass 25% of a first year discipline ie History, before you can enrol in the second year (History) units (unless you have TCE Stage 4 in a language with an OA or HA or equivalent).
- Of the 100% of first year units, 2 units (25%) can be a first year unit from another degree. ie, one of
 - *Introduction to Law
 - *Human Resource Management
 - *Fine Arts
 - *Music
 - *Computing
 - *Marketing
 - *Tourism
- * you can continue this discipline as a major (100% maximum),

DISCIPLINES

In your first year, you choose four disciplines (totalling 100%) from the list below;

Aboriginal Studies
Ancient Civilisations
Ancient Greek
Asian Studies
Behavioural Science
Chinese
Criminology
English
French

Gender Studies
Geography and Environmental Studies
German
History
Indonesian
International Relations
Japanese
