

What's new in MyLO for students?

1. MyLO home

The layout of MyLO home is very similar to the old MyWebCT page. The important change is My Settings where you can set your own preferences for all of your courses; including profile and photo, text size, mail forwarding, time zone etc.

The screenshot shows the MyLO home page for a student named Suzie Brown. The page is titled "MyLO LEARNING ONLINE" and "MyLO home". The user is logged in as "Suzie Brown" and the date is "21 October 2007 3:24 PM EST".

Key features and annotations:

- My Settings: A red circle highlights the "My Settings" link in the top right navigation bar. A callout box explains: "Change the layout and colour scheme of MyLO home".
- My Grades: A red circle highlights the "My Grades" section in the left sidebar. A callout box explains: "Action link: click on an action link to view information about that item."
- Course List: A section titled "Course List" showing "2007 - MyLO Sandpit - Suzie Brown" with "Section Instructor: Suzie Brown".
- Calendar Week: A section titled "Calendar Week" showing a list of dates from 22 October 2007 to 27 October 2007, with "All day Second Semester Examinations begin" on 27 October.
- Campus Announcements: A section titled "Campus Announcements" with links for "Vista regular maintenance", "Submitting Assignments in Vista", "Discussion messages in Vista", "Mail forwarding in Vista", "Long Discussion Messages", "Turnitin Student List", and "test two".
- Personal Bookmarks: A section titled "Personal Bookmarks" with the message "You currently have no bookmarks."
- Campus Bookmarks: A section titled "Campus Bookmarks" with links for "Help resources for students", "Support info for students", "Vista help resources for staff", and "Vista admin for staff".

2. Your course home page

Access course tools and content from the Course Tools menu or from links on your course home page or folders.

3. Course tools

The screenshot shows the MyLO Learning Online interface. The top left features the MyLO logo. Below it is a sidebar menu with two sections: 'Course Tools' and 'My Tools'. The 'Course Tools' section includes: Course Content, Announcements, Assessments, Discussions, Goals, Mail, Media Library, Profile, Search, and Web Links. The 'My Tools' section includes: My Grades and My Progress. The main content area displays 'Your location: Home Page' and a red banner with the word 'University'. Below the banner is a 'Welcome' message with a document icon and a copyright notice. A callout box titled 'New tools' is positioned over the 'Course Tools' menu, listing: Discussion Blogs & Journals, Goals, and Profile.

New tools

- Discussion Blogs & Journals
- Goals –learning goals may be associated with activities.
- Profile – lists profiles & photos of students & staff.

The screenshot shows the MyLO Learning Online interface with the 'Course Tools' menu collapsed into a vertical strip of icons. A callout box points to the collapsed menu with the text: 'The Course Tools menu may collapse to allow more room on your page. Click the arrows to expand or collapse as needed.'

The Course Tools menu may collapse to allow more room on your page. Click the arrows to expand or collapse as needed.

4. Attaching a file

This example is attaching a file to a discussion. Click on Add Attachments > Click on My Computer icon, find the file on your computer > Click on Open. The file will now be attached to your discussion.
