ASSIGNMENTS

Assessment in this unit takes the form of two pieces of written work to be submitted during the semester, one formal examination in the examination period and a participation mark.

Essay 1 is due by 5 pm on Friday, 25 August

Essay 2 is due by 5 pm on Monday, 25 September

Participation will be assessed by short-answer research exercises related to unit content.

The examination will be scheduled in the official examination period. The timetable is posted to all eligible students and published on the School notice boards.

Essay 1 will require close reading and will focus on Conan Doyle's The Sign of Four and Chandler's The Big Sleep. The word limit is 1,000 words, and this essay is worth 20% of your final mark in this unit. See the separate assignment information sheet.

This assignment will assess learning outcomes 1, 2a, 3 and 4.

Essay 2 will take the form of a short research essay, again with special emphasis on close reading, either on Woolf's Mrs Dalloway and Cunningham's The Hours or on Cunningham's The Hours and the film adaptation of the novel. The word limit is 1,500 words, and this essay is worth 30% of your final mark in this unit. See the separate assignment information sheet.

This assignment will assess learning outcomes 1, 2a, 3 and 4.

Participation will be assessed by short-answer research exercises related to unit content. The participation exercises are designed to introduce students to some of the key research tools and techniques in English. Students are required to select two out of four exercises. The instructions and due dates for these exercises are provided separately in the assignment information sheet. Each task is worth 5% and you will keep your two highest results, therefore participation is worth 10% of your final mark for this subject.

The participation tasks will assess learning outcomes 1 and 3.

The examination will assess the core skills identified in the Unit Aims and Objectives, with special emphasis on textual analysis and essay writing. The examination is worth 40% of your final mark in this unit.

The exam will assess learning outcomes 1, 2a and 3.

Attendance and performance requirements

- Eligibility to sit the examination depends upon the completion and submission of all written work and regular attendance at tutorials.
- The school will notify students of the final date that any work will be accepted.
- If written work is not completed, you will not be eligible to sit the end-of-semester examination.

If your tutorial attendance has not met the requirements, you may also be required to do additional work in order to be eligible to sit the end-of-semester examination.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Submission of Assignments

Students are required to submit a signed cover sheet with every assignment. This includes a declaration that all material submitted is their own work except where there is clear acknowledgement or reference to the work of others and that they have read the University statement on Academic Misconduct (Plagiarism) on the University website at www.utas.edu.au/plagiarism or in the Student Information Handbook. Assignment cover sheets are available from the School office. All written assignments must be submitted in hard-copy (not by email or other electronic means) and placed in the essay box at the School office on or before 5pm on the due date. Students are required to keep copies of all submitted assignments. Assignments will be returned within three weeks of the due date; once assignments have been returned no further late assignments will be accepted.

Late Assignments

Late submissions will be penalized as follows: 5% of the available marks for each day late for the first ten (10) working days (ie. 10 days late = -50%). Assignments submitted after this point will receive no marks and no comments. Late work will be accepted without penalty if accompanied by a medical certificate for the relevant period or a letter from a counsellor in the case of a serious non-medical reason.

Difficulties with your Studies

If you are experiencing difficulties with your studies or assignments, have personal or life planning issues, disability or illness which may affect your course of study, you should raise these with your lecturer and/or one of the following Student Services staff as soon as possible:

- Learning Skills Adviser
- Student Counsellor
- Careers Adviser
- Disability Adviser

University Statement on Plagiarism and Academic Integrity

"Plagiarism is a form of cheating. It is taking and using someone else's thoughts, writings or inventions and representing them as your own; for example, using an author's words without putting them in quotation marks and citing the source, using an author's ideas without proper acknowledgment and citation, copying another student's work.

If you have any doubts about how to refer to the work of others in your assignments, please consult your lecturer or tutor for relevant referencing guidelines, and the academic integrity resources on the web at <http://www.utas.edu.au/tl/supporting/academicintegrity/index.html>.

The intentional copying of someone else's work as one's own is a serious offence punishable by penalties that may range from a fine or deduction/cancellation of marks and, in the most serious of cases, to exclusion from a unit, a course or the University. Details of penalties that can be imposed are available in the Ordinance of Student Discipline – Part 3 Academic Misconduct, see

<http://www.utas.edu.au/universitycouncil/legislation/> "

The University and any persons authorised by the University may submit your assessable works to a plagiarism checking service, to obtain a report on possible instances of plagiarism. Assessable works may also be included in a reference database. It is a condition of this arrangement that the original author's permission is required before a work within the database can be viewed.

Assignment Presentation

The English discipline uses MLA Style, which is characterized by in-text referencing and a list of works cited. You can download a detailed explanation of MLA Style from the unit's Vista site or from the English homepage at <http://www.utas.edu.au/English/english1/referencing.htm> The detailed guide summarises the MLA Handbook for Writers of Research Papers, 6th ed. Ed. Joseph Gibaldi (New York: The Modern Language Association of America, 2003). A copy of the Handbook is held in the Reference section of the Library.

Marking Scale

The following distribution of marks and grades is applied in assessing your work:

- High Distinction (HD)—80-100%
- Distinction (DN)—70-79%
- Credit (CR)—60-69%
- Pass (PP)—50-59%
- Fail (NN)—0-49%

All marks are subject to moderation.

Assessment Criteria

The following criteria apply to assessment of the essay:

- Effectiveness of introduction
- Relevance and coherence of argument
- Effectiveness of conclusion
- Scope of textual referencing
- Use of critics
- Attention to expression, spelling, proof-reading and stylesheet.
