Attendance requirements

Regular tutorial attendance is required and an attendance roll will be taken. If you fail to satisfy the attendance requirements and/or complete all assessments you may be deemed ineligible to sit the exam or be required to submit additional work.

ASSESSMENT

Assessment in this unit takes the form of written exercises to be submitted during the semester, one written assignment to be handed in at the end of the semester, one aural test and one oral test completed in the final week of the semester, and one formal examination in the examination period.

Weekly exercises are due by 4 pm on Friday of each week, where work has been set.

Written test will be completed in normal class time at a time to be arranged during the semester.

Aural test will be conducted in normal class time in Week 13 by short answers based on a recorded text in the target language.

Oral test will be conducted on an individual basis at times to be scheduled in Week 13.

The examination will be scheduled in the official examination period. The examination timetable is published on the UTAS website. The examination is worth 60% of your final mark in this unit.

(Un-annotated German-English Dictionary permitted)

This assignment will assess learning outcomes 1, 2a, 2b and 3.

The weekly exercises will assess knowledge and understanding of material related to unit content. Together, the exercises are worth 10% of your final mark in this unit.

This assignment will assess learning outcomes 1, 2a, 3 and 4.

The written test will assess knowledge and skills in written German and is worth 15% of your final mark in this unit.

This assignment will assess learning outcomes 1, 2a, 2b and 3.

The aural test assesses understanding of spoken German based on written answers of short oral questions, both of which will be in the target language.

This test will assess learning outcomes 1, 2b and 2d.

The oral test assesses the students' pronunciation and ability to communicate orally in the target language. Topics and prepared reading will be distributed prior to the testing period.

The aural/oral test is worth 15% of your final mark in this unit.

This test will assess learning outcomes 1 and 2b.

University Statement on Plagiarism and Academic Integrity

"Plagiarism is a form of cheating. It is taking and using someone else's thoughts, writings or inventions and representing them as your own; for example, using an author's words without putting them in quotation marks and citing the source, using an author's ideas without proper acknowledgment and citation, copying another student's work.

If you have any doubts about how to refer to the work of others in your assignments, please consult your lecturer or tutor for relevant referencing guidelines, and the academic integrity resources on the web at <http://www.utas.edu.au/tl/supporting/academicintegrity/index.html>.

The intentional copying of someone else's work as one's own is a serious offence punishable by penalties that may range from a fine or deduction/cancellation of marks and, in the most serious of cases, to exclusion from a unit, a course or the University. Details of penalties that can be imposed are available in the Ordinance of Student Discipline – Part 3 Academic Misconduct, see <http://www.utas.edu.au/universitycouncil/legislation/>."

The University and any persons authorised by the University may submit your assessable works to a plagiarism checking service, to obtain a report on possible instances of plagiarism. Assessable works may also be included in a reference database. It is a condition of this arrangement that the original author's permission is required before a work within the database can be viewed.

Marking Scale

The following distribution of marks and grades is applied in assessing your work:

- High Distinction (HD)—80-100%
- Distinction (DN)—70-79%
- Credit (CR)—60-69%
- Pass (PP)—50-59%
- Fail (NN)—0-49%

All marks are subject to moderation.

Assessment Criteria

The following criteria apply to assessment of the essay:

- Grammatical correctness
- Syntax
- Choice of vocabulary
- Attention to expression, spelling, proof-reading.
