ASSESSMENT

Assessment in this unit takes the form of weekly written exercises to be submitted during the semester, occasional tutorial tests, one written assignment to be handed in at the end of the semester, one aural test and one oral test completed in the final week of semester, and one formal examination in the examination period.

Weekly exercises are due generally one week from the date the work was set, unless otherwise specified or formally arranged with your lecturer / tutor.

Tutorial Tests are conducted in normal class time based on knowledge and understanding of course material covered in the immediate period preceding the tests.

Written assignment is due by 4 pm on Friday, 17 October 2008.

Aural test will be conducted in normal class time in the week beginning 13 October (final week) by short answers based on a recorded text in the target language.

Oral test will be conducted in pairs (with individual assessment) at times to be scheduled in the week beginning 13 October.

The examination will be scheduled in the official examination period. The examination timetable is published on the UTAS website. The exam is worth 50% of your final mark in this unit.

This assignment will assess learning outcomes 1, 2a, 2b and 3.

The weekly exercises will assess knowledge and understanding of material related to unit content. Together the exercises are worth 15% of your final mark in this unit.

This assignment will assess learning outcomes 1, 2a, 2b and 3.

The Tutorial Tests are short quizzes or tests held during normal class time. Together the tests are worth 5% of your final mark in this unit.

This assignment will assess learning outcomes 1, 2a, 2b and 3.

The written assignment is based on the themes encountered during the semester and will require application of knowledge and skills developed. This assignment is worth 15% of your final mark in this unit. Choose one of the following topics and write approximately 150 words in German.

1. Reisen in Europa / Australien [travel in Europe / Australia]
2. Mein Lieblingssport [My favourite sport]
3. Umweltprobleme in meinem Land [Environmental problems in my country]
4. ein Stadtführer für meine Heimatstadt / eine Stadt in einem deutschsprachigen Land
[A guide to my home city / a city in a German-speaking country]

This assignment will assess learning outcomes 1, 2a, 3 and 4.

The aural test assesses understanding of spoken German based on written answers of short written questions both of which will be in the target language.

This test will assess learning outcomes 1, 2b and 2d.

The oral test assesses the students' pronunciation and ability to communicate orally in the target language. A list of potential questions and the prepared reading will be distributed prior to the testing period.

This test will assess learning outcomes 1 and 2b.

The aural and oral tests combined are worth 15% of your final mark in this unit.

University Statement on Plagiarism and Academic Integrity

"Plagiarism is a form of cheating. It is taking and using someone else's thoughts, writings or inventions and representing them as your own; for example, using an author's words without putting them in quotation marks and citing the source, using an author's ideas without proper acknowledgment and citation, copying another student's work.

If you have any doubts about how to refer to the work of others in your assignments, please consult your lecturer or tutor for relevant referencing guidelines, and the academic integrity resources on the web at <http://www.utas.edu.au/tl/supporting/academicintegrity/index.html>.

The intentional copying of someone else's work as one's own is a serious offence punishable by penalties that may range from a fine or deduction/cancellation of marks and, in the most serious of cases, to exclusion from a unit, a course or the University. Details of penalties that can be imposed are available in the Ordinance of Student Discipline – Part 3 Academic Misconduct, see <http://www.utas.edu.au/universitycouncil/legislation/>."

The University and any persons authorised by the University may submit your assessable works to a plagiarism checking service, to obtain a report on possible instances of plagiarism. Assessable works may also be included in a reference database. It is a condition of this arrangement that the original author's permission is required before a work within the database can be viewed.

Marking Scale

The following distribution of marks and grades is applied in assessing your work:

- High Distinction (HD)—80-100%
- Distinction (DN)—70-79%
- Credit (CR)—60-69%
- Pass (PP)—50-59%
- Fail (NN)—0-49%

All marks are subject to moderation.

Assessment Criteria

The following criteria apply to assessment of the essay:

- Grammatical correctness
- Syntax
- Choice of vocabulary
- Attention to expression, spelling, proof-reading.
