

From manuscript to print provides a description of all western manuscripts and early printed books to 1600 held in the University of Tasmania Library, the State Library of Tasmania and St. David's Cathedral, Hobart. It is also the catalogue of an exhibition displaying many of these items held at the University Library, December 2008 - January 2009.

The book has 128 pages, in full colour, with over 270 illustrations.

from manuscript to print

ISBN 978 1 86295 483 0

The Author

Rodney Thomson is Professor of Medieval History in the School of History & Classics, University of Tasmania. He is the author of many books and papers on medieval books and learning, including descriptive catalogues of the manuscripts at Lincoln, Hereford and Worcester Cathedrals, and Merton College Oxford.

To order your copy, please complete and return this form:

By mail: School of History and Classics, University of Tasmania,
Private Bag 81, Hobart, Tasmania, Australia 7001.

By fax: +61 (0)3 6226 2392

By email: Lyn.Richards@utas.edu.au

Name: _____

Address: _____

_____ P/code: _____ State: _____

Country: _____ Email: _____

"From Manuscript to Print" _____ copy (ies) @ $45.00 each $ _____

Postage per book (within Australia) $3.50 $ _____

Postage per book (overseas) - to be confirmed via email prior to payment $ _____

Total (includes GST) $ _____

Method of Payment:

Cheque (within Australia only, made payable to the School of History & Classics, University of Tasmania. OR

Visa Mastercard American Express

Card number: _____ / _____ / _____ / _____ / Expiry date: ____ / ____

Signature: _____