

Access to the Art Library

After hours access includes after 6pm Monday to Thursday and on weekends during semester times. The main entrance to the School of Art is closed at these times.

After hours access to the Art Library for students and staff of UTAS is through the Hunter St glass sliding door entrance.

You will need to press the buzzer to speak to security and show your student or staff ID card. School of Art students can gain access using a proxy card purchased from the School of Art.

Special borrowers need to contact the Art Librarian to discuss after hours access.
