Introduction to the Unit

The need and demand for trained, experienced and effective marketing practitioners is growing. Marketing is a discipline that seeks to 'make sense' of the commercial world around us, a skill that can benefit any enterprise in their given markets. As this is becoming increasingly recognised, more and more firms (including government agencies and non-profit organisations) are seeking people capable of putting marketing theory into practice powerfully and profitably.

Enrolment in the unit

Unless there are exceptional circumstances, students should not enrol in BMA units after the end of week two of semester, as the School cannot guarantee:

- that any extra assistance will be provided by the teaching team in respect of work covered in the period before enrolment; and
- that penalties will not be applied for the late submission of any piece or pieces of assessment that were due during that period.

Learning Outcomes

On completion of this unit, you should be able to:

- Undertake a logical analysis of the marketing environment within which firms operate.
- Demonstrate how the various marketing functions can be managed strategically to achieve marketing objectives.
- Generate a focused and logically derived marketing plan.
- Develop a precise vocabulary that will enable effective and efficient communications with other marketing professionals.

Generic Graduate Attributes

The University has defined a set of generic graduate attributes (GGAs) that can be expected of all graduates (see <http://www.utas.edu.au/tl/policies/index.htm>). By undertaking this unit you should make progress in attaining the following attributes:

Communication Skills

Submission of Coursework

Lodging Coursework

All Coursework must have the School of Management Assignment Cover Sheet and Title Page attached, both of which are available as a blank template from the School of Management website:
<http://www.utas.edu.au/mgmt/student.htm>

All assignments must include the tutor's name on the assignment Cover Sheets when they are handed in. If this is not done the assignment will not be accepted and therefore marked.

Please remember that you are responsible for lodging your Coursework on or before the due date. We suggest you keep a copy. Even in the most 'perfect' of systems, items sometimes go astray.

Note that you may also be required to submit an electronic copy of your Coursework. More details of this will be given in Lectures.

Hobart students: Lodge in assignment box next to room 321, Commerce & Economics Building.
Launceston students: Lodge in assignment box beside room A170.

Late Coursework

Written Work

Extensions will only be granted on medical or compassionate grounds and will not be granted because of work or other commitments. Requests for extensions should be made in writing to the lecturer-in-charge prior to the due date. Medical certificates or other evidence must be attached and must contain information which justifies the extension sought.

Late assignments which have not been granted an extension will, at the lecturer's discretion, be penalised by deducting ten per cent of total marks for each full day overdue.

Assignments submitted more than six days late will normally not be accepted by the lecturer-in-charge.

Tests

Students who are unable to sit a test on medical or compassionate grounds (work or other commitments are not considered 'compassionate grounds') may request that they be permitted to submit alternative Coursework.

Please do not expect a special test to be held for you if you choose to go on holidays or undertake other activities on the scheduled date. If you do need to request alternative Coursework, you should do so in writing to the lecturer-in-charge prior to the due date. Medical certificates or other evidence must be attached and must contain information which justifies the request. The telephone number of the doctor should also be included.

Return of Coursework

Coursework will be returned during classes or it can be collected from the lecturer's or tutor's room at nominated times; it will not be available from the School's offices.

Plagiarism

Plagiarism is a form of cheating. It is taking and using someone else's thoughts, writings or inventions and representing them as your own, for example:

- using an author's words without putting them in quotation marks and citing the source;
- using an author's ideas without proper acknowledgment and citation; or
- copying another student's work.

If you have any doubts about how to refer to the work of others in your assignments, please consult your lecturer or tutor for relevant referencing guidelines, and the academic integrity resources on the web at <http://www.utas.edu.au/plagiarism/> & <http://www.academicintegrity.utas.edu.au/>

The intentional copying of someone else's work as one's own is a serious offence punishable by penalties that may range from a fine or deduction/cancellation of marks and, in the most serious of cases, to exclusion from a unit, a course or the University. Details of penalties that can be imposed are available in the Ordinance of Student Discipline—Part 3 Academic Misconduct, see <http://www.utas.edu.au/universitycouncil/legislation/ord9.pdf>

The University reserves the right to submit (or to require you to submit) assignments to online plagiarism detection software, and might then retain a copy of the assignment on its database for the purpose of future plagiarism checking.

Occupational health and safety (OH&S)

The University is committed to providing a safe and secure teaching and learning environment. In addition to specific requirements of this unit you should refer to the University's policy at: http://www.admin.utas.edu.au/hr/ohs/pol\_proc/ohs.pdf

Workshop Program

Workshop 1— 28 February

A: Marketing concept and strategy

1. After reading the articles by Jain (2004a), Fahy & Smithee (1999, Pages 1-8) and Smith (2002), define the concept of 'strategic marketing'. In your answer, be sure to differentiate it from 'marketing management'.
2. Using the definitions explored in Question 1, discuss how each applies to the marketing plan assessment in this unit.
3. Read the article by Freeman (2005), and identify and define each of the elements of the marketing mix. In your definitions be sure to discuss the function and strategy of each element. Identify the role that Productivity & Quality play in the strategic management of the marketing mix.

B: Strategic analysis I (The firm and its competition)

1. Using the article by Pelletiere (2006), discuss the scope required when undertaking a corporate appraisal. Using examples what might a marketing manager want to consider in each of the criteria you identify.
2. Using the article by Greenwood (2007), identify and define the notion of a corporation's publics/stakeholders. Search the Internet for information about Gunns Ltd and the manner in which they have set about managing their publics/stakeholders in the old-growth logging controversy.
3. Using Gunns Ltd as your example, explain how a marketing manager might use knowledge of their publics/stakeholders to inform their marketing strategies?
4. Explain Porter's Five Factor model of industry structure analysis. Why might this be a useful framework for a marketing manager to use?

Workshop 2—14 March

A: Strategic analysis II (Customers and the environment)

1. Using the articles by Albright (2004) and Costa (1995), elaborate on marketing's 'environmental scanning' function. What types of responsibilities should be assigned to those in charge of environmental scanning?
2. Using the articles by Barron & Hollingshead (2002) and Raaij (2005), discuss the dimensions needed to define a firm's target customers effectively. How might this help marketing managers identify customer needs more accurately?
3. By what process might a marketing manager link their environmental scanning to the development of a marketing plan?

Workshop 3—28 March

A: The SWOT analysis and developing marketing objectives and goals

1. What is meant by corporate direction? Why is it necessary to set a corporation's direction?
2. How does the traditional view of the business mission differ from the contemporary approach?
3. Using the articles by Fahy & Smithee (1999, Page 9 onwards – this is the same reading required for Tutorial Week 2) and Novicevic et al. (2004), discuss the role of the SWOT analysis framework as a sense making tool for marketers.

Workshop 4—18 April

A: Strategy formulation

1. Using the article by Pierce & Moukanas (2002) identify the criteria by which a firm can effectively manage its portfolio of brands and products.
2. Using the article by Oliver (2002), discuss the role of language and metaphor might play in the strategy formulation process.
3. Using the article by Wyner (1997), discuss the notion of ‘trade-offs’ as it relates to the strategy formulation process. What processes might a marketing manager adopt to minimise these trade-offs?

B: Implementation and control

1. Using the article by Raps (2004) and Atkinson (2006), explain why marketing implementation can be difficult for many firms. In your answer, discuss how these difficulties often stem from the relationship between ‘strategic planning’ and ‘marketing implementation’. What are the implications for the practicing marketing manager?
2. Consider the article by Koontz & Rockwood (2001) and the reading entitled ‘Marketing Implementation and Control’. Identify and explain the three different types of ‘formal control’ and three types of ‘informal control’ available to marketing managers. Using examples, illustrate how each type of control might be used to effectively implement a marketing plan/strategy.

Workshop 5—2 May

Market/Product strategies

1. Using the article by Jain (2004b), discuss the notions of ‘product positioning’ and ‘product repositioning’.
2. What criteria that might a marketing manager employ to determine a viable position (or re-position) for a product or brand in the market? What strategies are available when a product line or brand is no longer viable?
3. Using the articles by Kaydo (2000) and Mahajan & Wind (2002), identify some of the factors underpinning effective ‘product positioning’ and ‘product differentiation’ in today’s marketplace.

Workshop 6—16 May

A: Pricing strategies

1. Using the article by Monroe & Cox (2001), discuss the functions and strategies of ‘price’ in the marketing mix?
2. Using the article by Holden & Nagle (1998), discuss the following statement: “The price of any item is exactly equal to what another is prepared to pay for it”.

Using the articles by Lambert & Cooper (2000) and Wyner (2002), discuss the factors a marketing manager must consider to ensure that their distribution channels are both effective and efficient.
2. 2. Using Morelli (2006) and Exhibit 16-4 available on MyLO or the CD-ROM, discuss some strategic factors that a marketing manager needs to consider when designing their distribution channel(s). What factors might require a marketing manager to change their distribution channel’s structure?
3. 3. What are the potential sources of conflict in a distribution channel? What are some strategies for preventing and/or resolving these conflicts?

Workshop 7—30 May

Assignment Topics

Marketing Plan Part I

Due Date: Monday, 20 April 2009.

Length: 4000 words MAXIMUM (NOTE: there is no 10% leeway). Students may attempt this assignment individually, or in groups of not more than 2.

Students are required to submit their Major Assignment as an electronic document via the 'Assignment Drop-Box' software program on MyLO.

Value: 50 marks

Rejuvenating the Hobart Central Business District

The Hobart Central Business District (CBD) is essentially an amalgam of many different private and public sector organisation that has, for many years, offered customers a comprehensive 'one-stop shopping experience'. Since 2000, however, the Hobart CBD has reported significant declines in its sales and customer growth figures – a decline that has been blamed largely on the increase in the number and quality of suburban shopping centre developments throughout the state and the availability of cheap airfares.

The Hobart CBD has identified the following major competitors that it wishes to combat in its next wave of marketing programs:

- The Eastland's Shopping Centre
- The Northgate Shopping Centre
- The Cambridge Shopping District (which includes the planned Direct Factory outlet)
- The Kingston CBD (including the Kingston Town, Channel Court and Coles Shopping Centres)
- Melbourne OR Sydney interstate shopping excursions

Your Task:

You have been hired as a consultant by the Hobart City Council to help with the development of a marketing plan to combat ONE of the competitors mentioned above. You are required to undertake the necessary secondary research in order to complete the following:

1. Consider the market situation faced by the Hobart CBD against the competitor that you have selected.
2. Using the Marketing Plan Worksheet as a guide (sections II to V inclusive), provide the Hobart City Council with a logically derived marketing plan for the rejuvenation of the Hobart CBD.

NOTE: You are not required to define any of the marketing management theories in your assignment. You are required, however, to fully reference the case facts you report in your assignment.

Marketing Plan Part II

Due Date: Monday, 8 June 2009.

Length: 4000 words MAXIMUM (NOTE: there is no 10% leeway). Students may attempt this assignment individually, or with the same partner as per Part I. Students that submitted Part I as a 'paired assignment' may choose to attempt Part II individually if they wish.

Students are required to submit their Major Assignment as an electronic document via the 'Assignment Drop-Box' software program on MyLO.

Value: 50 marks
