Schedule 2.1  Notice of employee representational rights
(regulation 2.05)

Fair Work Act 2009, subsection 174 (6)

The University of Tasmania gives notice that it is bargaining in relation to an enterprise agreement, the University of Tasmania Staff Agreement 2016 which is proposed to cover all staff of the University with the exception of (a) persons employed as Farm Operatives or Trainee Farm Operatives at the University’s research farms; and (b) employees holding management appointments graded higher than the HEO level scale.

What is an enterprise agreement?

An enterprise agreement is an agreement between an employer and its employees that will be covered by the agreement that sets the wages and conditions of those employees for a period of up to 4 years. To come into operation, the agreement must be supported by a majority of the employees who cast a vote to approve the agreement and it must be approved by an independent authority, Fair Work Commission.

If you are an employee who would be covered by the proposed agreement:

You have the right to appoint a bargaining representative to represent you in bargaining for the agreement or in a matter before Fair Work Commission about bargaining for the agreement.

You can do this by notifying the person in writing that you appoint that person as your bargaining representative. You can also appoint yourself as a bargaining representative. In either case you must give a copy of the appointment to your employer.

If you are a member of a union that is entitled to represent your industrial interests in relation to the work to be performed under the agreement, your union will be your bargaining representative for the agreement unless you appoint another person as your representative or you revoke the union’s status as your representative.
