STUDY TOURS FOR GROUPS

A world of opportunity and adventure awaits you in Australia's most southern state, Tasmania.

Studying internationally can be a great experience and a wonderful way to gain greater cultural understanding, to broaden perspectives and to grow personally.

A study tour at the University of Tasmania provides that opportunity as well as an unforgettable experience in this unique part of Australia.

With over 20 years of delivering high-quality, innovative learning opportunities, our Study Tour Programs offered through the English Language Centre located in Hobart & Launceston, provide a rich and engaging experience. Participants gain self-confidence, form new friendships, grow in resilience and learn skills that set them up for life and workplaces of the future.

Our friendly and highly-qualified teachers will help you to reach your English Language goals in a supportive environment.

"As a teacher at university, I need to use English a lot in my job so I am really happy to have the opportunity of studying at the ELC. The teachers are very professional in teaching English. They taught us many useful skills of academic reading, writing, speaking and listening which helps to improve English dramatically. Hobart is a very beautiful and peaceful city."

Zheng Mei - Anhui Medical University, China

STAND-ALONE

This type of program can be arranged for groups with course material specifically designed for the needs of each group.

Offered throughout the academic year, it may be delivered across all levels of English proficiency; however, it is best that the participants are of similar language ability.

Class sizes can vary but with no more than 18 per class. Stand Alone programs are usually timetabled in a way that combines English classes with extra-curricular activities

OPEN

These programs provide the opportunity for Study Tour participants to learn alongside students from around the world, with similar language abilities. Open to students 18 or over, participants have the opportunity to take part in the Centre's general and academic English classes.

The 5 week programs deliver 20+ hours of face-to-face intensive English tuition each week with 9 intakes per year. Please note shorter study periods for groups can be provided by arrangement. Our curriculum focuses on developing confidence in reading, writing, listening and speaking.

COMBINED

This combination of both open and stand-alone delivery can be arranged for adult groups.

The morning program gives participants the opportunity to join an English class with other international students, followed by an afternoon of either a focus on particular discipline or extra curricula activity.

The study start and end dates are fixed according to the academic calendar.

PROGRAM OUTLINE
