

Completing your eCAF for HAP under course X1P – Diploma of Philosophy course

The eCAF (electronic Commonwealth Assistance Form) is a government form that is available online through eStudent (<https://estudent.utas.edu.au>). Completing the form is a requirement of studying a HAP unit but you only need one eCAF per course no matter how many units you undertake under that course.

Government Assistance

Search

No records found.

OR

I do not want a HECS-HELP loan. I am applying for a CSP only and will pay my student contribution amounts upfront and in full.*

Request for a Commonwealth supported place and a HECS-HELP loan

Page 2 of 2

Submit Request

You will only be required to complete the Commonwealth Assistance Form. The SA-Help form is not applicable for HAP students as the fee has been sponsored by the University.

Section A: Student Details

Your name will automatically appear in this section.

You will need to complete;

- Date of Birth (DD/MM/YYYY format)
- Gender (as per Legal Documentation/Birth Certificate)

These will need to match our Student Management System at UTAS. You will receive a warning if they do not match.

Section B: Provider

This section will automatically appear in this section.

Section C: Citizenship/ Visa Status

Please complete the relevant section;

- Australian Citizen: Answer No.7
- New Zealand Citizen – Special Category Visa: Answer No.8
- New Zealand Citizen: Answer No.9
- Permanent Resident Visa Holder (born outside of Australia) : Answer 10
- Permanent Humanitarian Visa Holder: Answer 11

Section D: Tax File Number (TFN)

This is not required for the HAP program.

Section E: Declaration

When you SUBMIT the form this will be same as signing the form.

If you receive a message that the details do not match, please check the information you have entered. Go to the 'Commonwealth Assistance' tab in eStudent and click the 'View' button to check the details as they appear on the form.

If this is not APPROVED you are at risk of having your enrolment cancelled.