College of Health and Medicine

Postgraduate International Relocation Bursary

Semester 1 or 2, 2020

Terms and Conditions

Bursary

1. Relocation bursaries are available to international students who accept an offer and pay a commencement fee to study full-time (100%) in one of the following eligible College of Health and Medicine postgraduate degrees in Semester 1 or 2, 2020.

2. Eligible degrees include:

   Semester 1, 2020
   • Master of Public Health (M7W)

   Semester 2, 2020
   • Master of Pharmaceutical Science (M7E)
   • Master of Medical Research (Specialisation) (M7V)

3. Each bursary is worth a total of AU$4,000. The bursary will be given in the form of a cash payment, made in one full amount directly into the student’s nominated Australian bank account shortly after the census date in the semester in which they commence, provided that the student is enrolled in a full-time 100% load (4 x 12.5% units or equivalent), on the census date of that semester.

Eligibility

4. To be eligible, students must:
   • be classified as an International Student as defined under the rules of the University of Tasmania;
   • be an off-shore applicant (not currently in Australia);
   • have received and accepted an offer of a full-time place in one of the eligible courses listed under Bursary, Clause 2.
   • be commencing the first year of their degree in Semester 1 or 2, 2020;
   • Not be receiving advanced standing or credit for prior studies;
   • Not be in receipt of a Tasmanian International Scholarship; and
• pay the commencement fee outlined in their Letter of Offer and provide evidence of payment as set out in the Letter of Offer by Friday 6 December 2019 for students commencing in Semester 1, or by Friday 29 May 2020 for students commencing in Semester 2, 2020.

Application Process

5. Students are assessed automatically for the International Relocation Bursary for Health and Medicine (Postgraduate) upon submission of their International Student Application; there is no need to apply separately.

6. Students are firstly assessed for the Tasmanian International Scholarship (TIS), which is the University of Tasmania’s premier international scholarship providing a 25% reduction on the registered tuition fees for the duration of the course, and if found not to meet the eligibility requirement for this award, will be assessed for this relocation bursary.

Allocation of Bursaries

7. Students will be notified in their Letter of Offer.

Payment of Bursaries

8. The bursary will be paid in one full amount ($4,000) directly into the student's nominated Australian bank account shortly after census date.

9. For students commencing in Semester 1, 2020 payment date is expected to be Friday 3 April, 2020. For students commencing in Semester 2, 2020 payment date is expected to be Friday 14 August, 2020.

Actions Rendering the Scholarship Void

10. Students must observe the University’s rules of conduct and behaviour otherwise this bursary will be revoked immediately; and

11. To remain eligible for this bursary, the successful student must remain enrolled full-time (100% per year) in the approved course of study.

Advertising and Intellectual Property

12. Recipients of the relocation bursary authorise the University of Tasmania to use, reproduce, and/or publish their image, their name and story in relation to the bursary without compensation.

13. The material outlined in Clause 1 above may or may not be used in various publications, public affairs releases, recruitment materials, advertising or for other related endeavours.

Variation of Terms

14. The University of Tasmania reserves the right to amend these terms and conditions.
