Peter Dama
Master of Public Policy

I came to the University of Tasmania because I like adventure and travelling, not to mention that I found my preferred course here.

My experience so far has been good - and fun - it fits my lifestyle. I have been able to manage my time and have had the opportunity to meet new people.

What I love here is the vibe – there’s a sense of peace and respect that gives me confidence living here and confidence in my academic life.
