At the University of Tasmania English Language Centre (ELC), our award-winning teachers have been helping students of all ages achieve their goals for over thirty years. Whether you want to improve your English to enter university, advance your career, chat confidently with people during your travels or better connect in today's global society, our friendly and experienced teachers can give you the skills to get there.

You'll learn in a supportive learning environment, have the opportunity to make lifelong friendships with students from around the world, and study at one of our beautiful university campuses in Launceston and Hobart – tourist-friendly cities with plenty of internationally-renowned attractions nearby.

At the ELC we believe that the best language education takes place outside the classroom – and our unique language programmes and group study tours can take you there. Whether it is being immersed in local culture, participating in a tutorial with university students, taking cooking courses, playing with a Tassie sports team, speaking with the locals at a café or visiting one of Tasmania's many scenic attractions, we offer an authentic local experience that you'll never forget.

Ask us today about how we can help you learn English like a local.

Make friends from around the world. Connect with a friendly community. Explore a beautiful environment. Immerse yourself in new experiences. Learn English skills for life.

"...an experience you'll never forget."
Welcome to the English Language Centre at the University of Tasmania. We are Tasmania’s largest and most prestigious centre for language teaching, teacher training and study tours, with campuses in Hobart and Launceston.

For over 30 years, our highly qualified and award-winning teachers have taught general and academic English to thousands of students in a welcoming and supportive environment. Many of these students have continued on to study at an undergraduate or post graduate level at the University of Tasmania.

Tasmania’s natural beauty and unique lifestyle attracts students from all over the world so you have the opportunity to meet new people and make lasting friendships. Our students live and learn in an exciting, inspiring and unique environment.

I look forward to welcoming you to our beautiful campuses.

GENUINE INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCE

When you’re spending most of your day on campus, it’s important to know that you’ll be in a great environment.

The University of Tasmania’s campuses are vibrant, with buzzing student hubs, naturally landscaped gardens, a mix of traditional and modern architecture and quiet study areas. There’s always something happening, whether you want to meet other students, do something fun or just enjoy what university life has to offer.

As an international English Language student you can study in Tasmania’s two largest cities, Hobart and Launceston.

You’ll be part of an institution that has global standing and impact. The University of Tasmania has played a leading role in educational excellence. Not only do we have a reputation for outstanding research and learning across a wide range of disciplines, with degrees globally recognised, we also have an environment that is unique, stimulating and geared towards helping you achieve your best.

As a medium sized university we provide students with the benefits of smaller classes, personalised attention and ready access to lecturers and tutors for support. It’s home to a welcoming community with a diverse international population from over 100 different countries, all undertaking courses led by teachers and researchers who are committed to providing excellence.

You’ve made a great choice for your future.

TARA

“Hi, I’m Tara. Nice to meet you! I’ve been teaching on and off at the English Language Centre since 1998 when I returned to Hobart after 3 years of living in Japan. At that time, I taught general English to Japanese study tour students.

Nowadays, I teach Levels 5 and 6 of the UTAS Access Program. It makes me happy to witness my students improving their English language skills and accomplishing their dreams. I love to travel and study languages. In the future I’d like to learn Spanish and Mandarin. I was born in Hobart and I’m a graduate of UTAS. Please say hello next time you see me at the ELC. Good luck with your studies!”
