Student representative on Council
Following the March 2018 Council Members were asked to consider the process to appoint the student member on Council with a view to discussing and resolving the process to be implemented for future appointments. Models identified included direct election and expression of interest.
Discussion raised:
- The difficulty for student members to be across the breadth of matters requiring consideration in the one term period and the need to ensure that student members are appropriately qualified to make a meaningful contribution.
- Querying why the term is restricted to one year.
- The need to ensure that the process which facilitates student member appointment encourages participation by prospective student members who have diverse perspectives.
- The apparent level of interest in Council activities by the broader student body.

Given the extent of discussions and the current consideration of the Tasmanian University Union’s activities and operating model, it was resolved to defer this item until the next meeting of Council scheduled for June 2018.

Finance Committee succession planning
[Redacted] raised the pressing need to bring a suitably qualified and experienced external member onto Finance Committee particularly given his role on Council concludes at the end of 2018. Accordingly, [Redacted] requested members provide feedback to him on potential new Finance Committee members so an appointment to that forum can be made well in advance of his departure from Council.

- REDACTED
- REDACTED
- REDACTED

A presentation on the Southern Infrastructure Plan was also provided by management. Key matters highlighted included:

- The need for the University to make some long term infrastructure choices in respect to southern campuses.
- It is apparent that there are low levels of building utilisation on the Sandy Bay campus with in excess 18,000 square meters of space surplus to current needs.
- Two options are being assessed and that while significant work has been undertaken to date, particularly in respect to spatial planning and quantitative business case, further work is required in respect to the qualitative business case and funding options. In respect to funding, it was noted that at present there is not expected to be funding available from the Federal Government.
- The need for more detailed and robust rationale in respect to the classification of each building on the Sandy Bay campus as either refurbish, relocation or uneconomic to refurbish.
- Each option is expected to result in different asset realisation values and that based on modelling to date the city option is expected to result in a modest uplift in student numbers driven largely by student retention and accessibility.
- Based on currently financial modelling, indicative costs are that it is slightly more economical to remain on the Sandy Bay site but there is further work to be undertaken. Quantitative factors requiring consideration include remedial costs for any contamination, removal costs for specialist equipment and importantly the desired approach to realising Sandy Bay campus properties as this will impact expected financial returns.

SECTION 7 - OTHER BUSINESS

7.3 Other Business, Confidential Items and Future meetings

1. Other Business

A member raised an issue in respect to the Work Health and Safety (WHS) item contained in the University Performance Report (agenda item 4.1). Specifically, it was queried whether the existing systems were broken. Management advised that the existing systems were not to be considered broken but rather that WHS practices were not at the desired level. Further discussion included:

- It did not appear that there was a safety first workplace culture in all instances.
- A number of emails with WHS concerns had been received by the Vice-Chancellor
- A number of external internal audits have been conducted in recent years in respect to WHS and that perhaps these reports should be revisited.

A recent near miss incident involving a vehicle from the School of Biological Sciences was reported, noting that:
- the matter has been discussed at various senior executive forums to highlight the nature of the issue, the critical importance to undertake urgent and detailed follow up to clearly understand causal factors and inform necessary changes to existing WHS procedures.
- issues with the vehicles had been logged in WHS systems but had not been followed up in a timely manner.
- it was apparent that there was a diverse range of attitudes towards WHS across the University, including areas where there is strong WHS culture, behaviors and attitudes but this appears to be highly dependent on local leadership.

The importance of appropriate WHS metrics as a key component a robust WHS system was also highlighted.

There was no other business raised for discussion.

MEMBERS ONLY

2.1 *Members Only

Members of Council met in closed session and the following matters were raised:

Management of community expectations given prior commitments associated with northern developments
- Considering the discussion in the Strategic Session, this matter was highlighted as one requiring proactive management with the suggestion that it be a potential topic for the Council Planning Day in August 2018. There is a need to consider the stakeholder management options available to the University.
• There is a desire to be open, transparent and to work collaboratively with the State Government on the Northern developments.
• It was resolved to circulate the strategic session slides to members to assist in their thinking on this matter in preparation for the Council Planning Day.
• It was also suggested that if available, there would be benefit in the Vice-Chancellor attending an upcoming forum with some community leaders.

Work health and safety matters
• It was noted that the work health and safety matters raised in the University Performance Report and the Chair report from Audit & Risk Committee represented a significant issue that needs addressing. It was suggested that this was broader than just a cultural issue and that work health and safety practices have been impacted by a number of restructures and resourcing decisions over a 6 to 7 year period.
• It was acknowledged that work health and safety performance is variable and that there is work required to address shortcomings.

Fossil free divestment
• The status of divestment of investments in the fossil fuel industry was raised.
• It was noted that management are keen to revisit this matter and would welcome Council discussion on this topic. It was proposed that a paper on this matter be prepared for consideration that the next Council meeting.

Sub-division of University owned properties in Sandy Bay

Council noted that further consideration will be given to succession planning following discussion with individual members.

2.3 *Student representative on Council

At the May 2018 meeting of Council, members were asked to give consideration on the process to appoint the student member on Council with a view to discussing and resolving the process for future appointments. Models identified included:
• Direct election
• Expression of interest.

Following discussion, it was agreed that a hybrid model would be adopted. This would include:
• A nominations process which incorporates an Expression of Interest (EOI) component
• A panel assessment following the EOI
• An election process similar to that used for staff election of Council members.
There is also a need to clarify the University of Tasmania 1992 Act’s position in respect to the 1 year term of the student member on Council.

22-06-2018_UC_9516-3470
Council agreed to the process for appointment of a student member on Council to include an Expression of Interest component, panel assessment, full election, then appointment by Council.

- The rationale for the proposed changes to the report and the intention that it be a single platform of knowledge using appropriate metrics to measure and monitor the University’s performance. It was acknowledged that the community component of the report requires evolution.
- Noting that in 2019 it is expected that there will be ‘deeper dives’ on key performance themes and that the structure to facilitate Council consideration of these themes was in development.
- A range of more specific queries were raised by members. These included:
  - The reason for the significant uplift in Launceston EFTSSL. Management will provide Council with specific feedback on this matter.

It was noted that the status of a TEQSA (Tertiary Education Quality Standards Assurance) investigation on a specific matter is taking significant time and is not yet clear when this will be resolved or what remedial action may be required.

22-06-2018_UC_9301-3422
Council noted:
1. the current status in respect to the University's response to the Australian Human Rights Commission report Change the Course (August, 2017);
2. the University's commissioned report by [redacted] (March, 2018); and
3. the Vice-Chancellor's commitment to implementing all the recommendations from both reports, and the governance structure and resourcing that is being put in place to support this commitment.

Ms Gale left the meeting at 1.53pm

4.3 *Principal consultant for Northern Transformation Program

This item was considered after item 4.4

Management provided Council with an overview of the proposed timelines for the Northern Transformation Program noting that these have been shared with local Councils. Key points noted included:

- The interest and focus on the Launceston development is intense and the proposed timelines are very tight.
- The use of probity auditors to ensure integrity of the process is maintained in appointment of the principal consultant.
- The information and data presented in the Strategic Session provides clearer picture of the considerable nature of the challenge to meet by the Northern Transformation projects.
- There is a critical need for proactive engagement and management of key Northern stakeholders particularly given that the maturity in the University’s thinking may not align with some expectations of the broader Launceston community.
The risk profiles for the Northern and North-Western developments are quite different. Management is keen to understand Council’s risk appetite around these projects to inform decision making.

In respect to the Northern development, Council raised matters for consideration including:
- The need to clearly understand the University’s legal obligations and ramifications of any slippage on proposed timelines.
- Resolving the appropriate time to communicate with key stakeholders if there was any slippage.
- The need to work in a collaborative and transparent manner with State Government including sharing relevant data used to inform decision making.

It was considered that to engage and work constructively with key stakeholders, including the State Government, decisions can only be made on an informed basis once relevant information is available. As a result, management needs to progress master planning activities and receive feedback from the principal architect, once appointed, to inform the way forward and impact on proposed timelines.

22-06-2018_UC_8849-3461
Council noted progress to date in relation to the Northern Transformation Program and the process to engage a principal consultant.

4.4 * Southern Transformation update

Management provided an update on the Southern Infrastructure Business Case and Master Plan and highlighted two key components. The first being an overview of the potential socio-economic impact of the proposed relocation of the University of Tasmania Sandy Bay campus to the Hobart central business district. The second a Preliminary Traffic Impact Assessment for Central Hobart.

provided an overview of the potential socio-economic impact noting that the scope of the assessment and the constrained timeframe within which the assessment was undertaken. The assessment was an extensive scan and consideration of case studies however, literature is scarce and proxy measures were required due to the lack of available data and information and the time available to pursue for this work.

It was suggested that:
- Given the qualitative nature of certain aspects of the assessment, caution should be applied when drawing conclusions.
- Deakin University’s waterfront campus was noted as having some relevance for consideration.
- On this basis quantitative analysis through survey work was requested on the socio-economic impact of a potential move.

22-06-2018_UC_6757-3463
Council received the update on the Southern Infrastructure Business Case and Master Plan.

STRICTLY SESSION

1.1 *Performance Session

Student Lifecycle Project. Key matters noted included:

- This project is part of a broader project which is fundamentally directed to providing an excellent student experience. The broader project covers people, space, process & systems and evaluation.
- An overview of the project methodology, resulting in the production of the ‘Student Journey’ document, was distributed to members. The document collates and summarises feedback gathered at each stage of the student lifecycle including both positive and negative experiences for student.
- A number of areas presenting opportunity for improvement were identified and these have been prioritised by management. The most prominent area for improvement was the student enrolment process.
- Student enrolments were identified as currently being complex and crossing many administrative boundaries. It was noted that to simplify this process it would require shared accountability and empowerment of both academic and administrative staff. Importantly, to enhance the efficiency and effectiveness of the process, a whole of institution perspective needs to be adopted with students placed at the center of the solution.

Council discussion included:

- The extent to which benefits resulting from improving the enrolment process could be measured. It was noted that there would undoubtedly be an impact on student load but there were other benefits including enabling staff to work with colleagues across administrative boundaries and the cultural shift that will be required to effect this outcome.
- The existing complexity within courses, such as Bachelor of Arts, which is problematic for the student enrolment process.
- Questioning the extent to which the IT solution (AKARI) adds to the process complexity and drives the process design. It was noted that while AKARI created some issues it was suggested that the more significant issues are how the courses are represented and reflected in the system.
- Recognising the need, and challenge, to develop a culture that is willing to accept change and take an institutional view rather than enhance existing practice. It was noted that there is a drive to devolve authority through the organisation with a view to increase collaboration. With respect to increasing student load, this approach is expected to result in greater levels of accountability for College Executive Deans and those marketing courses.

- The observation that the University needs to narrow strategic focus and reduce the risk presented by resources being applied broadly.
- The key elements in driving lasting change are strong leadership at multiple levels and empowerment of our people to effect change.

This has resulted in an assessment of the most cost-effective approach to managing each building, over a 20-30-year timeframe, through either refurbishment or replacement.
- Recognition of factors impacting the future strategy for the University's southern campus, including the condition of several buildings (particularly following the recent flood damage), the potential impact of the Hobart City Deal and several concurrent CBD developments

- Recognising the need to streamline the course development, management and approval process while balancing this with the need to meet regulatory requirements. It was noted that currently the volume of paperwork and time required to effect course approvals was significant and also that the quality of course approval documentation prepared for review was in many cases not up to a necessary standard. A further report is expected to be presented to the September meeting of Academic Senate and would also be considered by the University Executive Team.
- The preliminary outcomes of the gender equity survey which noted a broad satisfaction at the local manager and supervisor level but less satisfaction from an institutional perspective in respect to matters such as flexible working arrangements.
- Feedback that the University's commitment to an integrated honours program has given rise to a number of risks which require management.

- The cost structures were reviewed and the importance of developing a cost structure to support the scale of the University with the breadth of its requirements was discussed.
- Recognition that the University needs to address [redacted] and that detailed analysis and market research is required to inform strategic decision making for future core offerings. It was noted that there is a critical need for differentiation in the University’s core product offering and in doing so be bold and adopt a longer term perspective in developing strategies to arrest declining core load. It was noted that the University would be wise to look beyond Australia to successful university systems in smaller jurisdictions like smaller universities in the United States for models and ideas to meet our challenges.
- Management reported that market research and uniqueness of product offerings in the context of being an organisation that is place based but globally connected is currently being undertaken at individual College level.
- [redacted] left the meeting at 10.50am.
1.2 *Strategic Session – Council member survey and interview outcomes

Following the recent Council member survey and interview process, a number of recommendations were presented to Council for consideration and comment by exception. Council member discussion included:

- In respect to Council’s role in the formulation of University strategic direction, it was noted that the strategic planning process is currently being documented and would be presented to Council before finalising. It was noted that the strategic sessions for Council would also provide a mechanism by which Council provides input at a strategic level.

- A degree of unease was expressed at the need to clarify Council’s expectations of Academic Senate and considering how the obligations of Senate are discharged under the University of Tasmania Act 1992. The Chair of Academic Senate circulated ‘Key documents on the role and function of Academic Senate’. It was resolved that members give consideration to the document for discussion at a Council meeting. It was also noted that consideration should be given to the mechanisms by which Council ensure quality of product including use of metrics which assess outputs and reporting to Council.

- Questioning why there was a need to clarify and resolve Council’s role in the appointment of management other than the Vice-Chancellor. Notwithstanding, Council requested a recommendation on an appropriate approach in respect to this matter be presented to Council.

To the extent that there were no amendments, it was proposed that the recommendations would be progressively actioned in a coordinated manner and reported back to Council.

- Aligning Council and Finance Committee meetings with the proposed strategic planning and budget cycle.
- The intention of establishing a more structured annual program of Council activity.
- Recent changes to the framework of delegated authority.

It was also noted that this would reduce the amount of administrative time committed to conducting Council meetings which is consistent with a desire to simplify existing administrative processes.

- The focus by management on casualisation of staff. It was noted that management is considering this issue and in particular recurring use of casual staff and use of rolling contracts which is particularly relevant for research staff.
- The difficulty in assessing overall research performance, and in particular research quality, based on the information being reported to Council. It was noted that reporting of research performance is being considered by management, but it was highlighted that reporting is influenced by rankings measures which appear to be driven largely by input measures. It was suggested that reporting research income in a similar manner as the financial forecast reporting of revenue may be helpful.
- The conciseness of health and safety reporting was noted, and the inclusion of benchmarking data has been a good initiative.
- The significance of investment income contributing to overall financial result was noted.

21-09-2018_UC_0751-4066

5.2 Northern Transformation Project

- Acknowledging the extent to which desires of the local community have been incorporated in the revised masterplan to date and the critical importance to the success of the campus of ensuring no further dilution of critical mass on site.
- The expected challenges in managing various local community expectations and interests in order to deliver a campus which facilitates outcomes aligned to the University’s strategic objectives and educational outcomes for the State has led to the proposal of an eight week pause on the project. This has been supported by the Treasurer and will require some amendment to the State and Federal Government funding agreements.
- Noting that additional on-site accommodation is not precluded in existing funding arrangements.
- The expected impact of further student accommodation on the Inveresk Site and the existing financial arrangement.

- Noting an upcoming special meeting of Academic Senate to consider the initial group of short course proposals scheduled for delivery in 2018 and the ongoing activity to resolve how short courses are embedded into the organisational structure and development of an aligned short course quality assurance process.
- Noting the Colleges to date have embraced the development of this initiative and have been co-operative. It was also noted that capability to operationalise short courses such as these does not generally reside within the Colleges. This would need to be addressed and also the issues of revenue distribution across Colleges would need to be worked through.
Council noted:
- The longer term strategic direction which focuses on industry engagement; disciplines of excellence and distinctiveness to the University; and credentialing.

5.4 * International Pathway Programs Opportunity

Council

The University Council met in the Council room Sandy Bay campus on Friday, 9 November 2018, starting at 9.00am.

PRESENT: The Chancellor (The Honourable Michael Field) in the Chair, Vice-Chancellor (Professor Rufus Black), Mrs Sue Chen, Mr Rhys Edwards, Mr Harvey Gibson, Mr Paul Gregg, Professor Jamie Kirkpatrick, Professor Kwong Lee Dow, Ms Pip Leedham, Professor Di Nicol, Mr Corey Peterson, Ms Tania Price and Ms Leanne Topfer.

Mr Alastair McDougall attended as Secretary.

attended for introductory comments

The Chancellor provided the follow introductory comments:

- Thanks and appreciation was extended to those who attended the Vice-Chancellor’s Awards ceremony and dinner on the evening before. Consideration is being given to the need to change the format of the evening to raise the profile of the event and attract a greater attendance.
PERFORMANCE AND STRATEGIC SESSIONS

1.1 Overarching Organisational Strategy

The Vice-Chancellor provided an overview of the initial iteration of the organisational strategy which had emanated from a series of cascading conversations conducted broadly throughout the University over recent months. This document represents the first chapter in restating the foundation for the University’s future strategic direction with an expressed desire to operationalise the strategy from the commencement of 2019. The Vice-Chancellor invited initial discussion and feedback from members.

Member views expressed were supportive of the direction stated in the document and recognised the quality of the content. Discussion and feedback included:

- Clarification of the timeframe over which the formal strategic plans will be developed in 2019. It was noted that while a progress update will be provided to the December 2018 Council meeting, it is the expectation that strategic plans will be finalised by June 2019.
- Clarification of the role of Schools within the University, particularly in the context of developing and delivering discrete strategic plans. It was noted that the importance of Schools within the University varied and that it would not be a ‘one size fits all’ solution.
- Strategic plans will be developed initially at the College, School/Institute or Discipline level depending on their particular roles and progressively rolled up to a whole of University level. It was noted that it is the intention that approximately four to five whole of University themes will be identified through this process. This approach will necessarily lead to a changed approach from many and particularly for staff working at College and Divisional levels.
- Noting that leadership and the ability to operate in a strategic manner are skills which are variable across the University and will require sustained support and development. The intention to introduce longer term planning horizons and the direct engagement of the Vice-Chancellor with organisational units will assist in developing these skills and individual unit strategic plans.
- Noting that this document articulates a genuine attempt to change the focus of the University from a Hobart centric focus to a whole of Tasmania perspective and that the University is uniquely positioned to deliver on this opportunity at this point in time.
- Careful consideration needs to be given as to how the messages and themes within this strategic document are communicated to external stakeholders.
- Positively noting that the document is presented in terms which are clearly articulated, easy to understand and incorporate a degree of specificity which will assist with implementation and monitoring delivery.
- Considering the need to draw out aspects related to student experience noting that the profile of the student body has changed significantly over time.
- Noting that as the University is a values based organisation, it is important that there is clear articulation and shared understanding of what these values mean from a behavioral perspective.

1.2 People Strategy

Management provided members with:

- An update of the process to develop the people strategy, noting that feedback on cascading conversations within the University is expected to be completed by mid-November 2018.
- The rationale for the development of a cohesive people strategy, noting that in a distributed leadership model it is critical that leadership skills of staff are developed and actively fostered.
- A presentation on some National higher education workforce benchmark data and how the University is positioned in light of these benchmarks.

Key matters raised for discussion included:

- The need to reduce the proportion on the workforce on fixed-term or causal appointments.
- The importance of strengthening the values component of the University approach to people and performance management.
- The task of managing the balance of professional and academic staff numbers within the University. It was noted that there is a need to get below the headline ratios to really understand the issues and opportunities in finding the right balance.
• The critical need to build leadership capability within the University’s workforce.
• The need to consider the academic promotions policy and processes to ensure that they effectively support our academic community.
• The need to consider recruitment policies to ensure that they appropriately support our staff so that they can be challenged, developed and promoted in a way that delivers strong outcomes for the University.

It was noted that there are varying degrees of capability across the University. It was also noted that while there are examples of constructive behavior there are also a range of observed behaviors, which have been far from constructive. The power of role modelling, the importance of leadership development and inclusion of behavioural expectations in position descriptions are particularly important elements in developing constructive behaviours within our workforce. It was noted that University has, in the past, appeared to have had a high level of tolerance for poor behavior. The development of a revised behavior policy will provide a mechanism with which to address behavior by staff which is not appropriate or constructive.

Management noted that Council will be progressively kept informed as the people strategy is developed.

1.3 *Northern Transformation Update (Inveresk)

Management provided Council with an update on the progress of the Inveresk campus development. Matters highlighted included:
• Acknowledging the complexity of the project and also the outcomes of recent discussions with the State Government. This included the opportunity to restate the business case and provide a greater level of detail which underpin the rationale for the campus development. In addition, it has also offered an opportunity to articulate the risks associated with various components of potential growth in student numbers. It was noted that some of the factors which would underpin increased student numbers, such as increased educational attainment in Tasmania, were not fully within the control of the University. Further, it presented opportunity to more clearly articulate how the restated business case aligns with the broader organisational strategy presented in the Overarching Organisational Strategy (presented at item 1.1).
• The expectation that the campus will have a smaller physical footprint than the community and some external stakeholders may have expected.
• The restated business case will be supported by detailed risk adjusted modelling.
• Noting that while it is not expected that there would necessarily be changes to core aspects of the funding deed, it is expected that it will necessarily require changes to stated and agreed milestones within the funding deed.

Management advised that the restated business case would be presented to the December 2018 Council meeting but there may be the need for Council to consider some matters prior to the next meeting.

4.3 * Northern Transformations Project – West Park

Mr Wardle provided members with a presentation outlining the schematic design for the Westpark Campus. The Chair of the Built Environment and Infrastructure Committee reported that the design had received unanimous support from that Committee.

Key points of discussion included:
• That the original budget of [Redacted] would not be sufficient to meet the schematic design as presented and would not result in a fit for purpose building. It was noted that the original budget did not take into account key requirements of the University and specifically it did not include a courtyard and expected increases in costs due to incorporation of a greater degree of specialisation which had been factored into teaching spaces.
• The revised budget is currently $m with value management activities still being undertaken.
• The impact on budget of costing due to an expected uplift in contractor costs driven by the volume of anticipated construction activity in Tasmania over the short to medium term had been factored in.

Understanding the impact meeting costs incurred in excess of the approved budget may impact the timeframe within which other construction activity, particularly in respect to southern campuses, may be commenced and progressed.
• Clarifying the rationale for using concrete as the material for the exterior rather than timber. It was noted that durability was a key factor in this decision and that manufacturing would be undertaken in Tasmania. There will be significant use of timber in the interior including for some structural purposes.

09-11-2018_UC_4199-4595
That Council:
1. Approved the schematic design for the West Park campus and recommends that Council delegates authority to the Vice-Chancellor to refine the design to remain within the approved budget.
2. Approved the West Park campus construction budget of up to $M.

• Questioning as to whether the student body understood Council's role.

3.1 *University Performance Report

Discussion of the risks to student load associated with the availability of accommodation in Hobart is noted under item 6.1.

Discussion included:
- Management outlined the key themes arising from cascading conversations on the People Strategy, noting over 70 responses were received with generally strong support for the principles and the longer planning horizon. The responses indicated a desire for the framework to be specific to the University of Tasmania, expressed in plain language and for clarity on how the principles will be converted into practice. The feedback also indicated there is scope for improvement in relation to the level of accountability that accompanies the model of distributed leadership, particularly in middle management levels.
• A key next step is the development of a performance framework that takes a system-wide approach covering capability as well as performance across the organisation. The framework will incorporate individual behaviour as well as the performance of teams, with the aim to release a draft framework for consultation in February so that it can feed into the development of people plans as part of the 2019 strategic planning process.

4.3 * University Behaviour Policy and Student Behaviour Ordinance

Discussion included:
- The University is on track to implement almost all recommendations from the Australian Human Rights Commission report and the Rosenthal and Banks Report by the end of the year other than those requiring new IT systems or that are ongoing in nature through the efforts of a dedicated Sexual Assault and Sexual Harassment (SASH) Project Team and Taskforce, with the Vice-Chancellor offering his thanks for the efforts and effectiveness of the Team.

- The University’s existing policies and Ordinances in relation to student and staff behaviour have been reviewed in a holistic way, incorporating behavioural expectations for the University community in a single suite of documents.
- The documents are explicit in the positive behaviours that are expected as well as identifying inappropriate behaviour, while also moving to a restorative rather than an automatic punitive approach for managing inappropriate behaviour.
- The approach provides for early intervention and “make safe” arrangements, with support from a single centralised Safe and Fair Community Unit.
- The use of a “balance of probabilities” test for responding to incidents and complaints is consistent with the approach of other Universities around the country and is considered to be appropriate for the sorts of sanctions that are available to the University.
- The key requirements and expectations contained in the updated policy and Ordinance will be communicated to students and staff through a range of mechanisms, including through a dedicated website, student orientation, staff training and staff induction.
- A concern was raised in relation to the requirement that the support person of student who is the subject of a complaint cannot be a lawyer. It was noted that this approach is standard across Universities around the country and is intended to ensure fairness between parties and minimise the risk of an adversarial approach for managing complaints.
- Minor typographical changes were requested on page 3 (Fairness and justice) and page 4 (Honesty) of the updated policy.

14-12-2018_UC_8809-4730

6.1* Risks associated with residential accommodation approaching

This item was considered out of sequence, along with item 3.1 and 4.8. Discussion included:
• The excess demand for student accommodation in Hobart has only arisen late in the year as it became apparent that the previous experience, where approximately 60% of continuing students chose to leave University accommodation, was not occurring for 2019 and in some instances 100% of returning students were reapplying for University accommodation.
• Coincident with this emerging trend was information showing that international student applications and offers had grown significantly but acceptances had not, due largely to a perception that there was no accommodation available in Hobart.
• In response to these developments, priorities have been developed for allocating accommodation, although it is clear that with demand outstripping supply it will not be possible to meet the desires of every applicant and there will be a challenge in finding accommodation for all students.
• The University is working directly with affected students (including post-graduate students) to provide support, information and manage logistical needs, as well as managing interest from the media and key stakeholders.
• It was also noted that compliance with NRAS requirements, which includes a prioritisation for Australian students, impacts on the mix of students that will end up allocated to the different University properties.
• The possibility of securing portable accommodation as a short-term solution is currently being investigated, including the need for State Government support and involvement both in terms of student accommodation and its broader role in providing solutions to the shortage of affordable accommodation in Hobart.
• The University will continue to pursue longer term solutions, including construction of further purpose-built student accommodation in Hobart, that will enable the University to meet the core long-term student demand which could include accommodation guarantees as part of bundled place-based on-campus course offerings.
