Now that your enrolment in UCP has been confirmed, it’s time to complete your Commonwealth Assistance Form online (eCAF).

What is a Commonwealth Assistance Form?

The Commonwealth Assistance Form (CAF) allows you to confirm with the Federal Government that you are undertaking Tertiary study at UTAS. This in turn allows UTAS to collect funding from the Federal Government which we then use to provide you with your teaching.

Do you have to complete a CAF form?

Yes, all students studying at University are required to fill in a CAF form.

What happens if you don’t complete a CAF form?

If you do not complete a CAF form, your enrolment will be cancelled and you will not be able to access your study materials online.

How will you know that you have to complete a CAF form?

Once your enrolment is completed, the UTAS Enrolments team will send you an email asking you to log in and complete your eCAF.

What is an eCAF?

An eCAF is an electronic version of the CAF form and you access that through eStudent.
