

ACADEMIC SUPPORT

UTAS
SPORT

The University of Tasmania understands that athletes require increased support to successfully integrate their studies while training and competing. As a result, eligible athletes may be able to negotiate with aide from their allocated Elite Athlete Coordinator the following:

Exams

- University of Tasmania may allow Elite Athletes to complete their exams under exam conditions outside of the university campus if the athlete is traveling/competing elsewhere
- Alternative exam arrangements for Elite Athletes, including exams sat at an external location.
- Exams to be sat during the deferral period

Attendance at Lectures and Tutorials

- Students are able to negotiate with lecturers and tutors, where feasible and practical, their availability to attend lectures and tutorials. This is dependent on the faculty. The student needs to provide supportive documentation from their sporting body.
- Student able to negotiate with lecturer and tutorials, where feasible and practical, extensions for assessments. This is dependent on the faculty and lecturer and is subject to approval.

Leave of Absence

- Leaves of absence where required to attend University of Tasmania Elite Athlete Program verified sporting competitions or specified training. Supportive documentation needs to be provided by sporting body.

Options for the Athlete to Consider

- Elite Athletes may consider online alternative study modes if required
- Elite Athletes are encouraged to consider Summer, Spring and Winter schools to complete their studies if required
- Cross-institutional study options with interstate universities.

University of Tasmania

Timothy Harmsen - Cycling

Zahara Lemon - Golf

George Bailey - Cricket

