

Annotated Bibliography

Book

Author/s
Year
Title
Edition
Publisher
Place of publication
Summary	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• The background/credibility of the author(s)• Main argument/idea of the text• The conclusions made by the author(s)• The reliability of the text• Strengths and limitations of the text• The relevance or usefulness of the text for your research

Journal Article

Author/s
Year
Article Title
Journal Title
Volume
Issue / No.
Pages
Summary	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• The background/credibility of the author(s)• Main argument/idea of the article• The research methods• The conclusions made by the author(s)• The reliability of the study• Strengths and limitations of the study• The relevance or usefulness of the article for your research

WWW

Author/s
Year
Title
Publisher
Place of publication
Date viewed
URL
Summary	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Who – is the author / who owns the information / authors' credentials?• When – how current is info?• What – is the focus / their perspective/bias?• Where – are the gaps?• How – is this relevant to my topic?• Where – does this fit into my thinking about the topic? / fit into the structure of my essay?

Except where otherwise noted, content on this page is licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution-ShareAlike 4.0 International Licence

Note: The open version of this document may have been altered from the original. Only pages on this site that display the CC licence and logo are licensed under a Creative Commons licence.

Attribution information
Title:	Student Learning - Introductory Academic Program - Annotated Bibliography
Source:	http://www.utas.edu.au/health/community/open-health/uni-view/resources/courses/student-learning/annotated-bibliography
Author:	Anna Klebansky