Pathways to becoming an AHPRA registered Psychologist at the University of Tasmania

Year 12 graduate

- N E W - Diploma in Counselling
  1 year full-time

One of the following degrees:

- Bachelor of Psychological Science
- Bachelor of Arts*
- Bachelor of Science*
- Bachelor of Laws/
  Bachelor of Psychological Science*

3 years full-time
* Must complete APAC accredited sequence within undergraduate degree

Bachelor of Psychological Science (Honours)
1 year full-time (Minimum score required)

If Honours 2A or above

- N E W - Combined Master of Psychology (Clinical)
  PhD (Clinical Psychology)
  4 years full-time

Master of Psychology (Clinical)
2 years full-time

If Honours 2B or above

- N E W - Grad Dip of Professional Psychology Practice
  1 year full-time

OR

- N E W - Supervised practice
  1 year full-time (organised by student)

Master of Professional Psychology
1 year full-time

Registered General Psychologist
(AoPE eligible)

- N E W - Master of Clinical Psychology
  (Advanced Entry)
  1 year full-time

Registered General Psychologist

* Must complete APAC accredited sequence within undergraduate degree

OR

- N E W - Bachelor of Psychological Science
  (Honours)
  1 year full-time

If Hons 2B or above

- N E W - Master of Clinical Psychology
  (Advanced Entry)
  1 year full-time

Registered General Psychologist

Learn more at utas.edu.au/study/psychology