

ROOM 124

Time	Name	Information
11am	Kendal Sylvester – University of Tasmania student and Teaching Fellow	Ever wondered about studying as an adult learner? Kendal will share her story and highlights of studying at the University of Tasmania.
11.30am	Emily Flies – Nature Connection Storytelling Project	The power of storytelling and connecting with nature. Hear all about the Nature Connection Project, it's aims and intended outcomes.
12pm	Leanne Mangano - Australian Red Cross Lifeblood	Hear about the power of donation and how it can save a life. Thought about donating but have questions, now is the chance to find out more.
12.30pm	Eddy Roccati – Research Fellow	How the Island Study Linking Ageing and Neurodegenerative Disease (ISLAND) Project is helping to understand who is most at risk of dementia and how can people self-manage risk behaviours to build resilience.
1pm	Jenny Donovan (Regional Planning Coordinator) – Cradle Coast Authority	Jenny will look at some of the ways we can plan and design our urban communities to make the healthy choices not just possible but preferable.

ROOM 126

Time	Name	Information
10.45am	Australian Breastfeeding Association	ABA has a range of support for mothers, parents and families in the North West. Hear how to link up with their parenting village - anytime from pregnancy onwards.
11.15am	Paul Berchtold – Department of Education and Young People School Social worker	What's life like as a school social worker? Hear from Paul about what makes him passionate about his role and the impact it has on young North West Coasters.
11.45am	AFL Tasmania – Women's Tassie Devils Squad	Members of the AFL women's Tassie Devils squad will share how they became involved with the sport, their pathway to the development program and hopes for the future.
12.15pm	Christine Farmer - Menzies Institute of Research	Cardiovascular disease is a broad term that describes many different diseases and conditions that affect the heart and blood vessels. Hear from researchers about the new Cardiovascular Research Flagship and how you can be involved.
12.45pm	Dr Denni Arli – Associate Professor in Marketing	Learn more about healthy eating from a social marketing perspective. Denni will give an overview of his research and provide some practical tips and strategies for incorporating healthier food choices into daily life.
1.45pm	Kate Phillips – Dental Hygienist	Dental Health Awareness - The Oral Systemic Connection.