

RTI – vaccination data
Information request	Response
Request 1
1. No of unvaccinated UTAS employees without medical exemptions who were allowed to access UTAS premises after 15 January 2022	Zero
2. No of unvaccinated UTAS employees without medical exemptions as at 3 August 2022	Ten It is noted that these employees are either on extended leave or are in the process of seeking an exemption or are working in alternate locations (including overseas) where they are not attending campus at the moment. Prior to returning to campus, they will be required to comply with the procedure (unless they are exempt).
3. No of unvaccinated UTAS employees without medical exemptions who were allowed to access UTAS premises as at 3 August 2022	Zero
5. Data obtained by way of staff and student vaccine mandate surveys closing 29 Nov 2021, including no of participants, no of respondents, % double vaccinated, % that believed vaccination could provide protection to individuals other than themselves, % that did not think that vaccination should be a requirement for anyone, % concerned by each option provided in q4, and major safety concerns raised at q 5.	No of participants - 24344 No of respondents - 4212 % double vaccinated – 91% % that believed vaccination could provide protection to individuals other than themselves – 86% % that did not think that vaccination should be a requirement for anyone – 3% % concerned by each option provided in q4 – concerned with vaccine side effects 15% concerned with personal medical circumstances 20% concerned with access to their preferred vaccination 8% concerned with whether other people on campus are vaccinated 27% concerned with ethical reasons 24% concerned with privacy of information 18%
7. Documents illustrating any attempts made by UTAS to summarise information relating to the way in which risk of severe covid is stratified with age.	No information available
8. Documents illustrating any attempts made by UTAS to describe the likelihood of severe illness amongst staff/students taking into account their demographic	No information available
9. Documents illustrating any attempts by UTAS to summarise information relating to the ability of COVID vaccines to prevent	No information available infection and the rate at which such an ability wanes overtime

10. Documents illustrating any attempts made by UTAS to summarise information relating to the types and numbers of adverse events reported through government portals including the Australian database of adverse events, the CDC's vaccine adverse events reporting system, and the UK's yellow card reporting system.	No information available
Request 2
1. No of UTAS employees that had not completed a relevant vaccine series or had not declared their vaccine status, did not have a medical exemption, and who were allowed to access UTAS premises after 15 Jan 2022	Zero
2. No of UTAS employees that had not completed a relevant vaccine series or had not declared their vacc status, and did not have a medical exemption as at 3 August 2022	Zero
3. No of UTAS employees that had NOT completed a relevant vaccine series or had not declared their vacc status, did not have a medical exemption, and were allowed access to UTAS premises as at 3 August 2022	Zero
4. No of covid cases reported to UTAS by staff and students each week since the vaccine mandate was implemented.	Spreadsheet attached.