University of Tasmania Law Review

Volume 37 Number 1 2018

Articles

Termination for Convenience, the Doctrine of Executive Necessity and Government Contracting: Implications for Commonwealth Agencies such as Defence
Mark Gianzacpro 1

Parenting in the Aftermath of Abduction: Comparative Insights into the Formulation of Parenting Arrangements Post-Return to Australia under the Hague Child Abduction Convention
Danielle Bozin 26

Improved Security of Payment Legislation and Project Bank Accounts: A Joint Solution to Payment and Insolvency Issues in the Construction Industry?
Kyle Bowyer 52

Book Reviews

A Theory of Legitimate Expectations for Public Administration
Rose Mackie 80

Justice and Natural Resources
Frances Medlock 83

The Rule of Law in the Real World
Kathryn Ellis 86

Atrocity Speech Law: Foundation, Fragmentation, Fruition
Daniel Westbury 89

Indigenous Women’s Writing and the Cultural Study of Law
Taylor Bachand 93

The Intersection of International Law and Domestic Law: A Theoretical and Practical Analysis
Manoj Fernando 96