THE FULBRIGHT PROGRAM

The Fulbright Program is the flagship foreign exchange scholarship program of the United States of America, aimed at increasing bilateral collaboration, cultural understanding, and the exchange of ideas. Born in the aftermath of WWII, the program was established by Senator J. William Fulbright in 1946 with the ethos of turning ‘swords into ploughshares’, whereby credits from the sale of surplus U.S. war materials were used to fund academic exchanges between host countries and the US. Since its establishment, Fulbright has grown to become the largest educational exchange program in the world, operating in over 160 countries. In its seventy-year history, more than 370,000 students, academics, and professionals have received Fulbright Scholarships.

FULBRIGHT AUSTRALIA

Fulbright Australia offers a diverse selection of scholarships for Australian students, academics, and professionals seeking to study or conduct research in the US. Applicants can be at any postgraduate career stage and from any academic background. Whether you’re a prospective Master’s student looking to study law at an Ivy League university, a PhD policy expert seeking postdoctoral research opportunities at a leading U.S. think-tank, or an agricultural scientist proposing collaborative research in the U.S. Midwest, Fulbright has a scholarship for you.

SCHOLARSHIP ELIGIBILITY

| Postgraduate | I wish to undertake a postgraduate program (e.g. a Master’s) in the U.S. OR I am a prospective PhD student wishing to undertake a full PhD program in the U.S. OR I am a PhD student at an Australian university, wishing to conduct research in the U.S. |
| Postdoctoral | I have recently completed my PhD and wish to undertake postdoctoral research in the U.S. |
| Scholar | I am a mid-career professional in the private, public, or not-for-profit sector wishing to undertake a training or research program in the U.S. OR I am a senior-level academic (associate or full professor) wishing to undertake research in the U.S. |
