

Study with the Wicking Dementia Centre

Course Comparison

	Dementia Care Degree Program Diploma / Associate Degree / Bachelor	Bachelor of Ageing and Dementia Studies	Postgraduate study in Dementia Grad Certificate / Grad Diploma / Masters
Study mode
• Online	Yes	Yes	Yes
• Full-time or part-time	Yes	Yes	Yes
• On-campus intensive workshops	No	Yes	No
Domestic/International	Australia and International	Australia only	Australia and international
Tuition fee help options ^	Yes	Yes	Yes
HECS Scholarships	Yes 100% HECS scholarship for Diploma available* 50% scholarship for Assoc Degree and Bachelor available*	No	No
Study streams	Double major: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Understanding Dementia</li> <li>• Models of Healthcare</li> </ul>	Double major: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Ageing and aged care</li> <li>• Dementia studies</li> </ul>	Study themes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Health and Social Care</li> <li>• Neurobiology</li> <li>• Policies and Systems</li> <li>• Public Health</li> <li>• Major project (Master's level)</li> </ul>
Semester intake	February and July	February and July	February and July
Who is this course suited to and what to expect?  We welcome applications from all backgrounds with an interest in ageing and dementia for all of our courses.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Direct care orientated.</li> <li>• Develop specialist knowledge of dementia and dementia care to enable the delivery of best practice dementia care.</li> <li>• Graduates may provide an excellent standard of care and advice, provide care directives and peer to peer training, in varied roles within the community, health care centres and hospitals, and in residential care.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Indirect care orientated.</li> <li>• Aimed at emerging leaders who require specialised knowledge of ageing and dementia across the breadth of ageing and the aged care sector.</li> <li>• Content includes governance, policy, Australian industry context.</li> <li>• Graduates may be emerging leaders in a non-direct care environment, such as assessors, case managers, policy developers, operations.</li> </ul>	Individuals and professionals who need an in-depth understanding of dementia and its impact on individuals, societies and governments. Our online study community and alumni forums provide the opportunity to grow a network of dementia knowledge with your peers.
Entry requirements	All applications are considered for entry	ATAR 65 or equivalent	Any completed bachelor degree
Graduation points	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Diploma of Dementia Care (8 units)</li> <li>• Associate Degree in Dementia Care (16 units)</li> <li>• Bachelor of Dementia Care (24 units)</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Bachelor of Ageing and Dementia Studies (24 units)</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Graduate Certificate in Dementia (4 units)</li> <li>• Graduate Diploma of Dementia (8 units)</li> <li>• Master of Dementia (11 units)</li> </ul>

* Conditions apply. See the HECS Scholarships & Fees Page for more information and to see whether you may be eligible.

^ FEE-HELP options - see website for more information.