

Student Complaints Policy

Version 1 – Approved 25 September 2020

Purpose:

The University is committed to providing a safe and supportive environment for students to raise concerns or complaints regarding aspects of University life. This policy outlines the University's commitment to maintaining a complaints process where issues are dealt with on their merit, and which works towards timely and effective resolution.

1	Student complaints	Responsible
1.1	The University provides an accessible and transparent student complaint process, at no financial cost to the complainant.	Provost
1.2	Wherever possible, students are encouraged to first attempt to resolve their matter locally (ie where the issue arose) and informally before formalising a complaint.	Provost
1.3	Formal complaints will be taken seriously and actioned in a timely manner, and complainants kept informed as to the progress of their complaint. They will be advised in writing of the outcome and reasons for the decision.	Provost
1.4	Each complaint will be managed in an objective and unbiased manner with procedural fairness provided to all parties to a complaint.	Provost
1.5	The University will ensure that complainants are not adversely affected because of their complaint.	Provost
1.6	Independent advocacy services will be available to students to assist them in dealing with their complaint.	Provost
1.7	At all times during a complaint process, parties to the complaint will treat each other with respect and in accordance with the University's Behaviour Policy .	Provost
1.8	Where a complainant remains dissatisfied with the outcome of their complaint, they may seek an appeal of the decision on grounds that will be determined and published by the University. Complainants may also refer the matter to external organisations, as appropriate.	Provost
1.9	The University will take the opportunity to learn from each complaint, informing future practice and activity.	Provost
